them for living

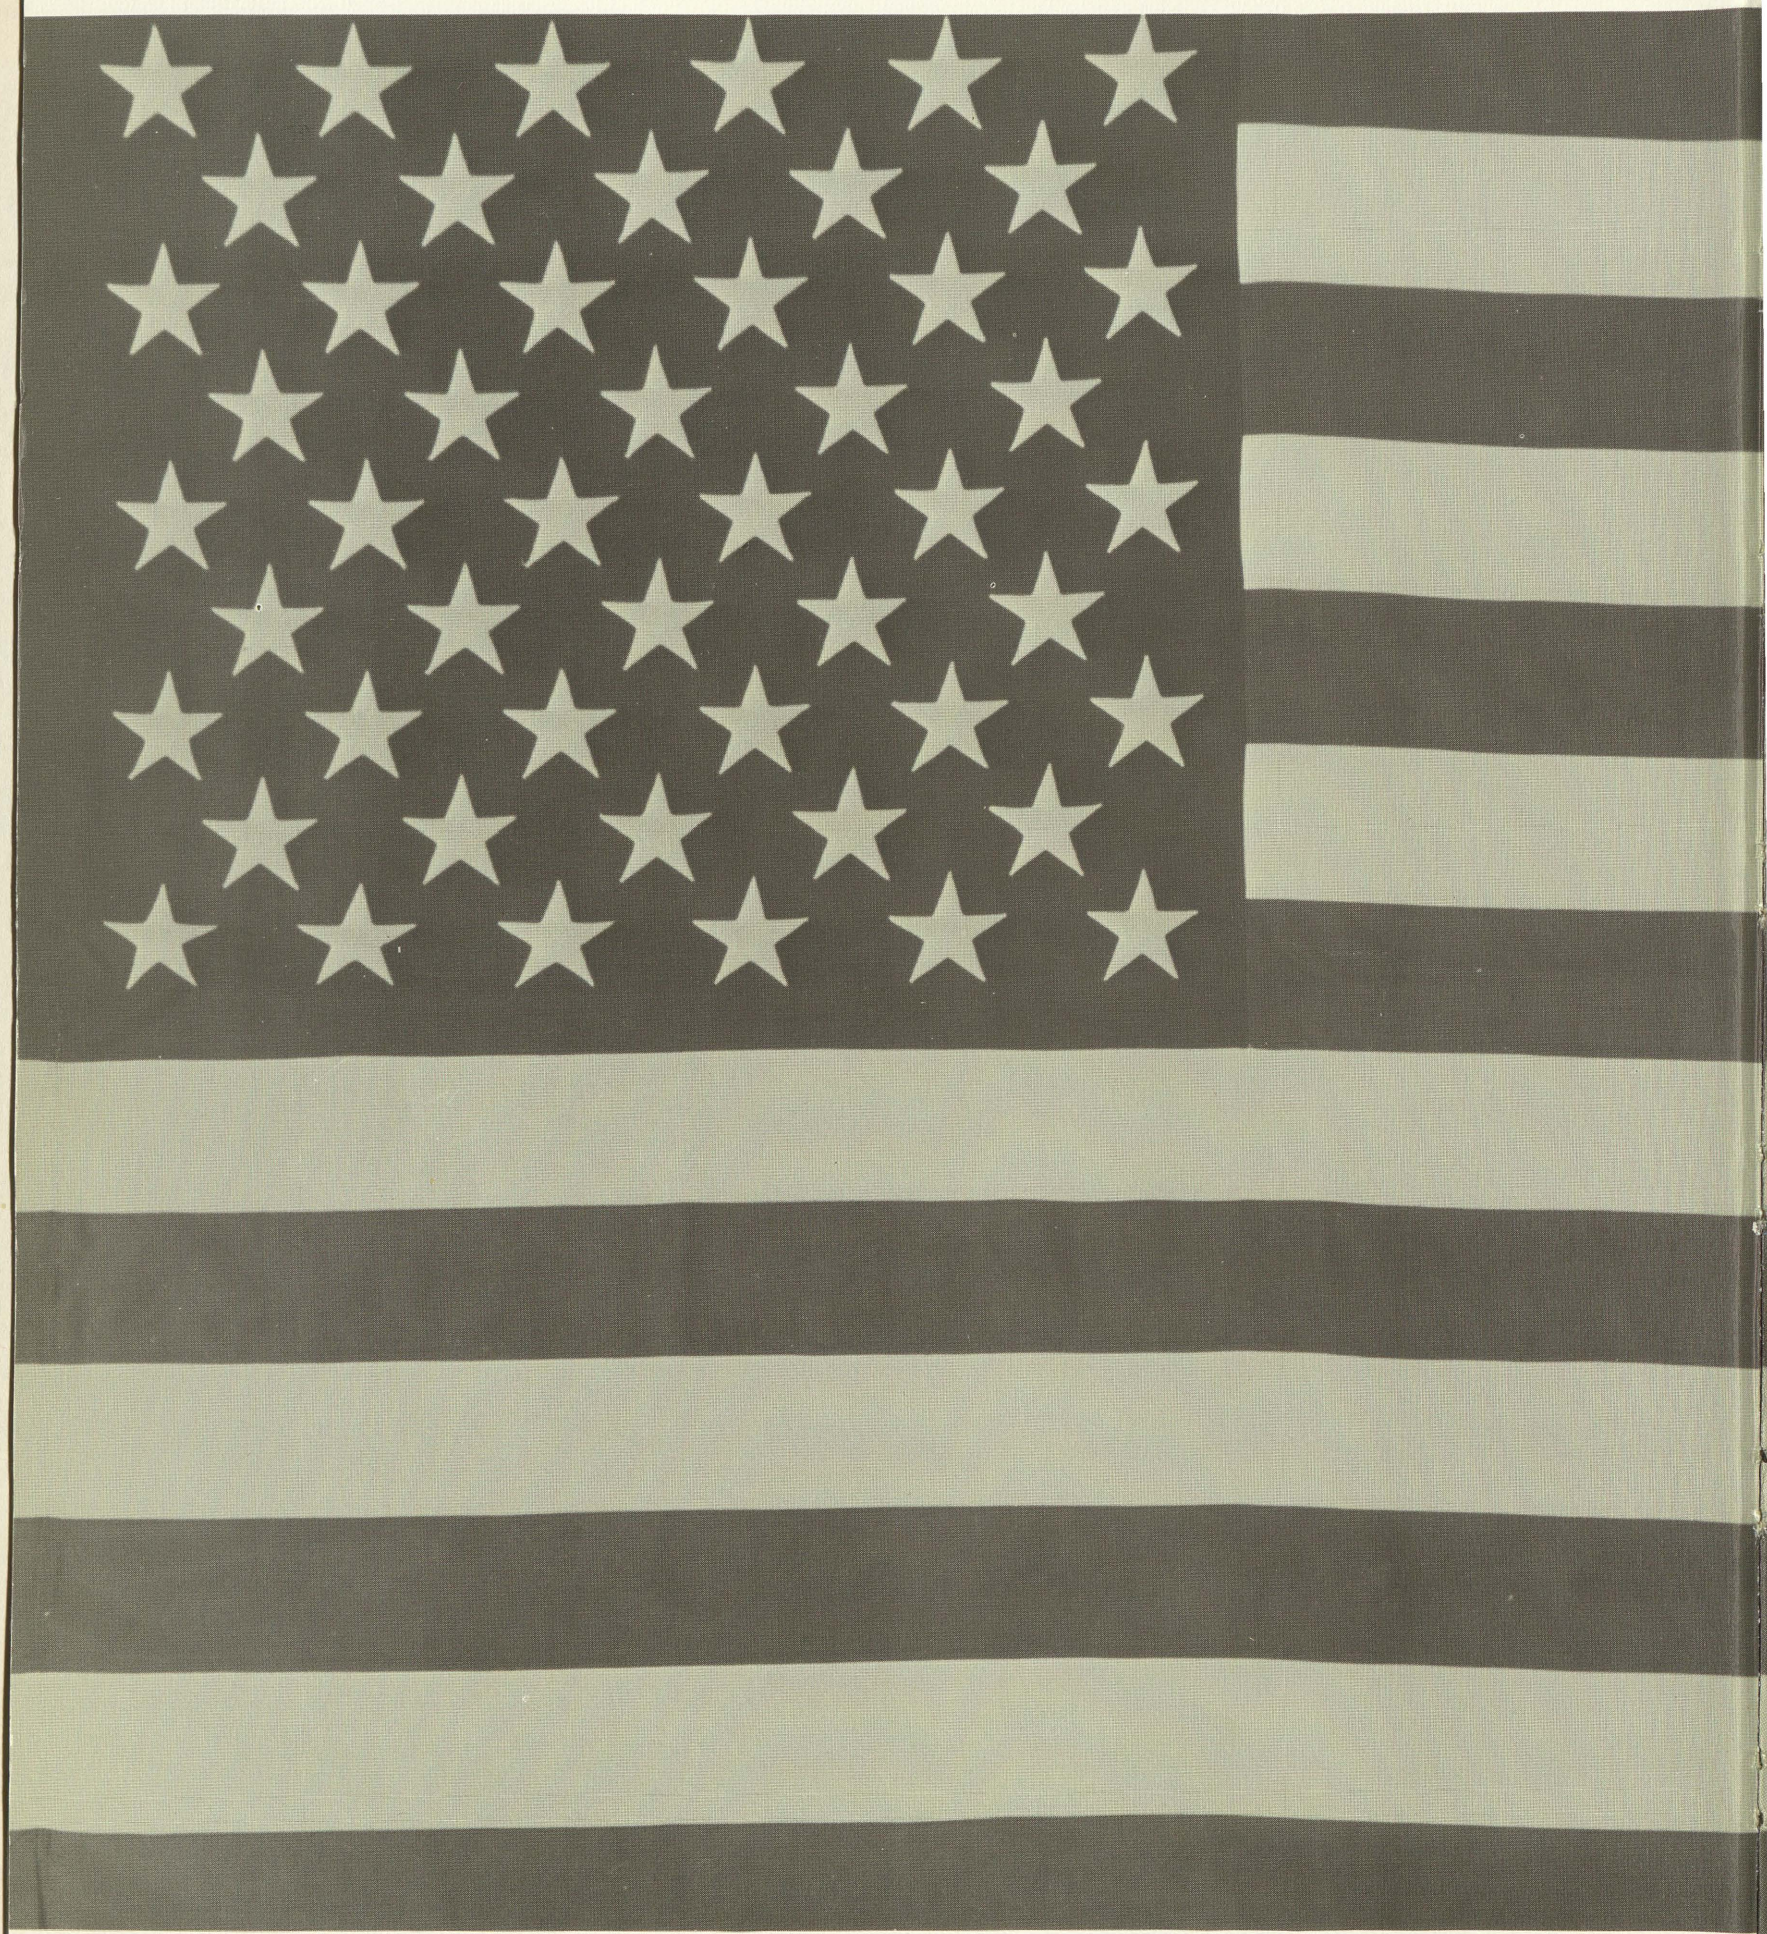

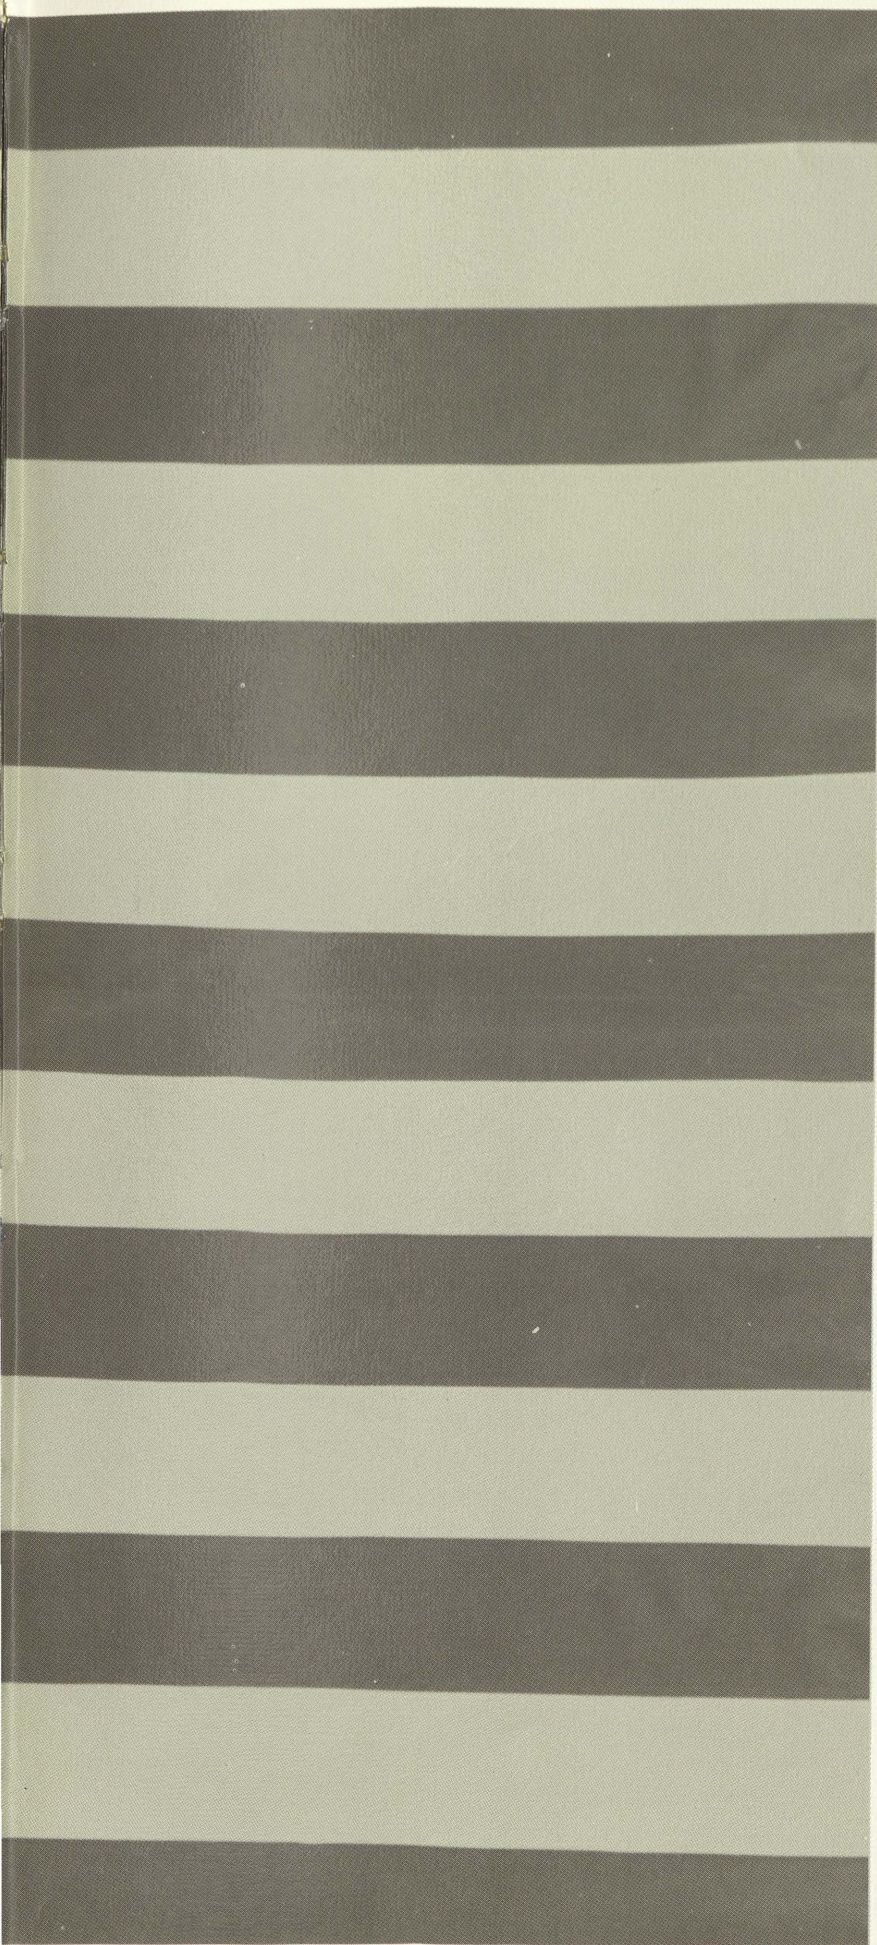

enter the young —
a peaceful

enter the young — giving birth to new hope, ideas, tolerance — without these the

Kim / enthusiastic queen inspires spirit

Queen Kimberle Hise reigned over Arthur Hill's 39th annual Homecoming festivities Oct., 30. Queen Kim was officially crowned by Guy Staples, Student Cabinet president, and Peter Nash, vice president, at Coronation Assembly. "A Time to Remember" was the theme for the activities which included the assembly, football game against Bay City Handy and dance following the game. Boys' Quartet entertained at the assembly with an original arrangement of "Traces/Memories" by Mr. Richard E. Jensen, music department chairman.

Also reigning with Queen Kim were attendants Linda Meyer and Linda Schulz. Members of the court were Deborah Hansen, Kathryn Hill, Sandy Hollis, Melinda Mason, Jill Ogram, Gloria Ortega, Sally Schnell and Carol Spagnuolo.

Open Forum/ offers students opportunity to question Cabinet officers

Open Forum meetings, headed by Student Cabinet members, gave interested students a chance to bring up questions or suggestions concerning the school. Taking place in either the Community Room or cafeteria, Open Forum meetings were a new addition to this year's schedule.

Student Cabinet members, led by President Guy Staples, helped to bring many recent additions to the school. One addition was a juke box in the cafeteria, which provided music for students with free hours. A dance featuring "Ormandy" and "Maxx" took place in the gymnasium after a game against Flint Northern Oct. 9.

Other Student Cabinet members included Peter Nash, vice president; Linda Meyer, secretary; and Daniel Rusch, treasurer. Instead of having president, vice president and secretary-treasurer for each class, representatives were elected under a new constitution to help promote views of each class.

A six point plan provided a basic platform of action for Student Cabinet members. Six phases of the plan are for greater student interaction and increased communication between students and administrators. They also provided an adequate place for student free hours, decreased student parking problems and provided a way to let students express ideas to make school more enjoyable.

Principal Harold W. Giesecke, adviser to the Student Cabinet, listens attentively at a meeting.

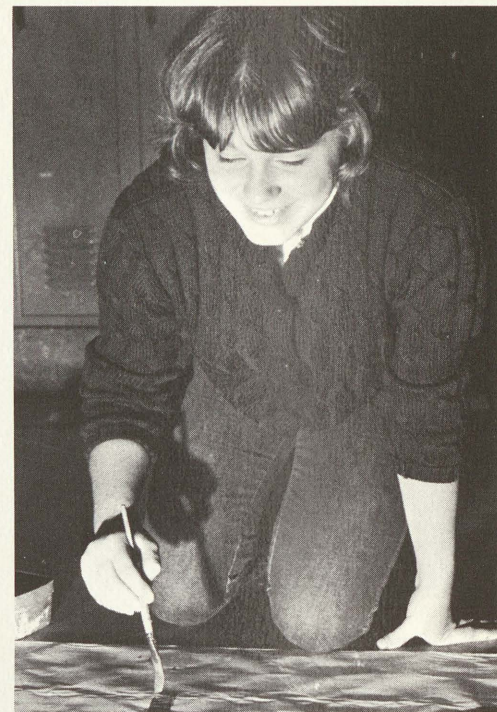

Service/ students help to enthuse, assist

For Arthur Hill's second largest club, Pep Club, pep assemblies were big events. Advised by Mrs. Merle Leis and Miss Jo Ann Deford, the club's planned activities included Homecoming decorations, pep assemblies, arranging buses for away games and posters for Arthur Hill's hallways. A new addition to Pep Club, the members of Blue and Gold Sportsmans Club, boosted Lumberjack spirit higher than in past years.

Ushers Club, under adviser Mrs. Margaret Murray, handed out programs at Arthur Hill's annual Pops Concert and other concerts throughout the year. They participated in all school activities taking place in the auditorium including the Honors Assembly, plays and the spring musical, "Sound of Music."

A copy machine, which enabled students to reproduce any information at 10 cents per page, was installed in the library. In other changes para-professionals provided supervision for the library allowing the librarians to work with students.

Arts/ creativity requires concentration, skill

Students interested in engineering and architecture were members of the Industrial Arts Club. For the first time since its formation, Industrial Arts had a girl member, secretary Linda Vercoe. Members visited industries, listened to lectures by prominent architects and engineers and worked on projects related to industrial arts. Industrial Arts' purpose was to acquaint students with processes and career opportunities in industry, according to club adviser Mr. Carl Schmude.

Chess Club members competed against St. Peter and Paul's, Douglas MacArthur and St. Mary's in tournaments. Mr. Richard Thomas is club Adviser.

Art Club, advised by Mrs. Carol Wylie, sponsored a candy sale early in the year. A trip to Detroit's Institute of Art was also planned. Individual Art Club members assisted with displays at the Saginaw Art Museum.

Each Thursday groups went to Bintz's Apple Mountain after school to practice techniques and participate in inter-club races. A trip by 70 club members to Holiday Hills Resort in Traverse City over Valentines Day was also included in the year's activities.

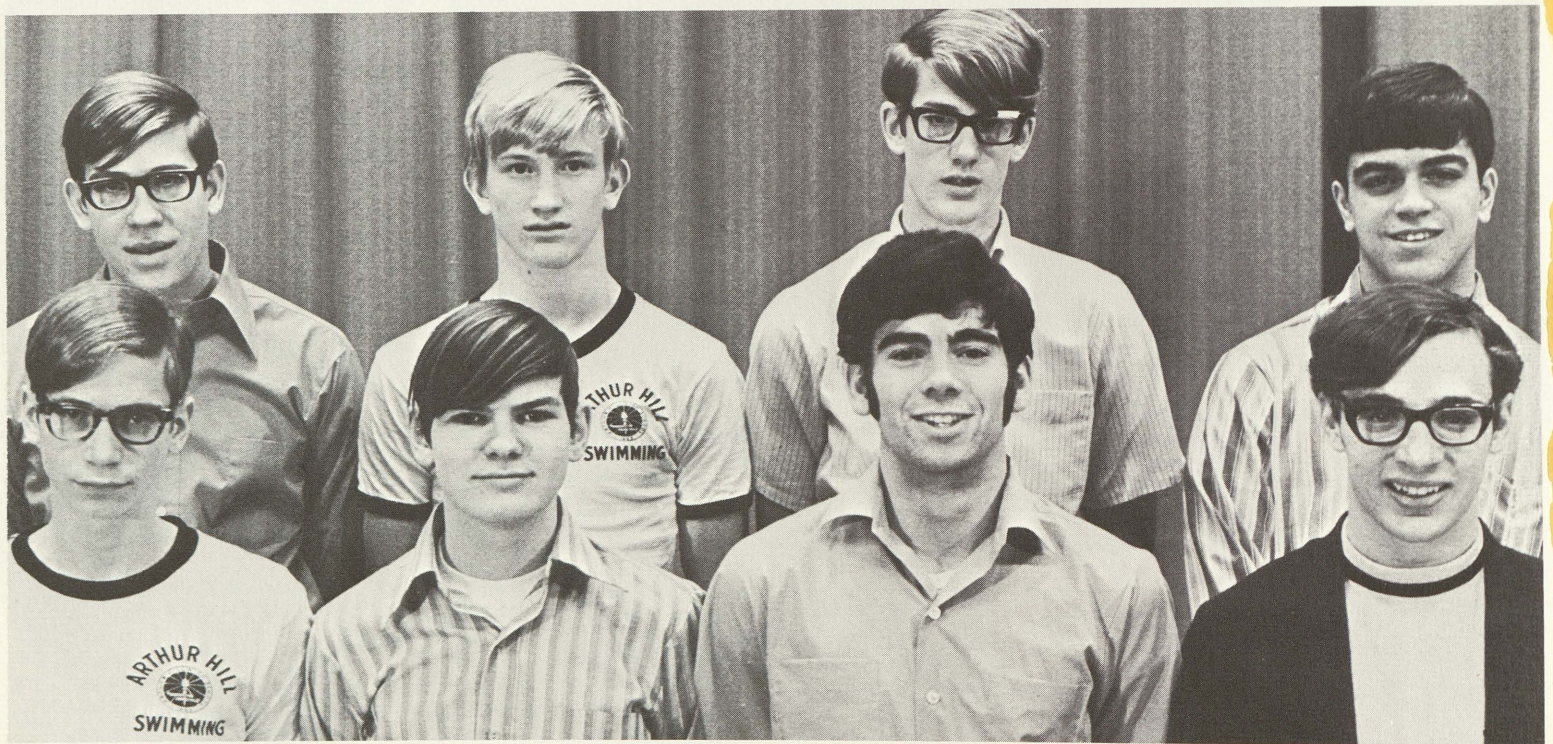

JV Pom Pom Squad was added to the varsity squad to provide entertainment at basketball games. Girls were judged at tryouts by their performance of cartwheels, splits, routine steps, enthusiasm and smile. This was the third year Mr. Gary Knight has advised the club.

Athletics / practiced in gym daily

Girls' Athletic Association (GAA) advised by Mrs. Margaret Dietrich participated in intramurals including basketball, badminton and tennis. Club aroused interest in athletic and recreational participation and provided opportunities for interscholastic competition. Bike hikes and canoe trips were also planned by the club in the fall and spring.

Swim instructors Mrs. Nancy Puehl and Mr. Donald Morey tested students with an interest in swimming and a desire to become swim aids. To become a swim aid, one must be able to dive, do synchronize swimming and be dependable. During classes, 48 swim aids assist instructors in teaching students the backstroke, side stroke and breast stroke along with ballet leg and sculling.

Volunteers / stimulate concern for community

Y-Teens had a new adviser this year, Mrs. Judith Wilson. A hayride at Back of the Moon Ranch in Bridgeport was sponsored by Y-Teens. Other activities included tobogganing, Christmas caroling at Luther Manor and camping. Assisting with programs at Saginaw's YWCA helped members fulfill the club's purpose of making girls more aware of what's happening in the school and community.

Purpose of Hi-Y Club, advised by Mr. Gary Knight, was to provide boys with an opportunity to enjoy sports in which they might not otherwise participate. Meetings were frequently arranged in the gymnasium allowing members to practice basketball techniques to help the boys prepare for the annual Hi-Y basketball game against Arthur Hill faculty.

Forty-five Arthur Hill girls worked after school as Candy Stripers at Saginaw General Hospital. Their duties consisted of passing out food trays and water jugs, wheeling patients to their rooms after X-rays, straightening up patients' bedside units and comforting patients by reading, talking or playing cards.

Club members/ train toward future careers

Acting in "The Counting People," a Thanksgiving play, earned extra points for participating Thespians. Minimum of ten points is required to be admitted into the Thespian Society. Until ten points are obtained, a student is an apprentice.

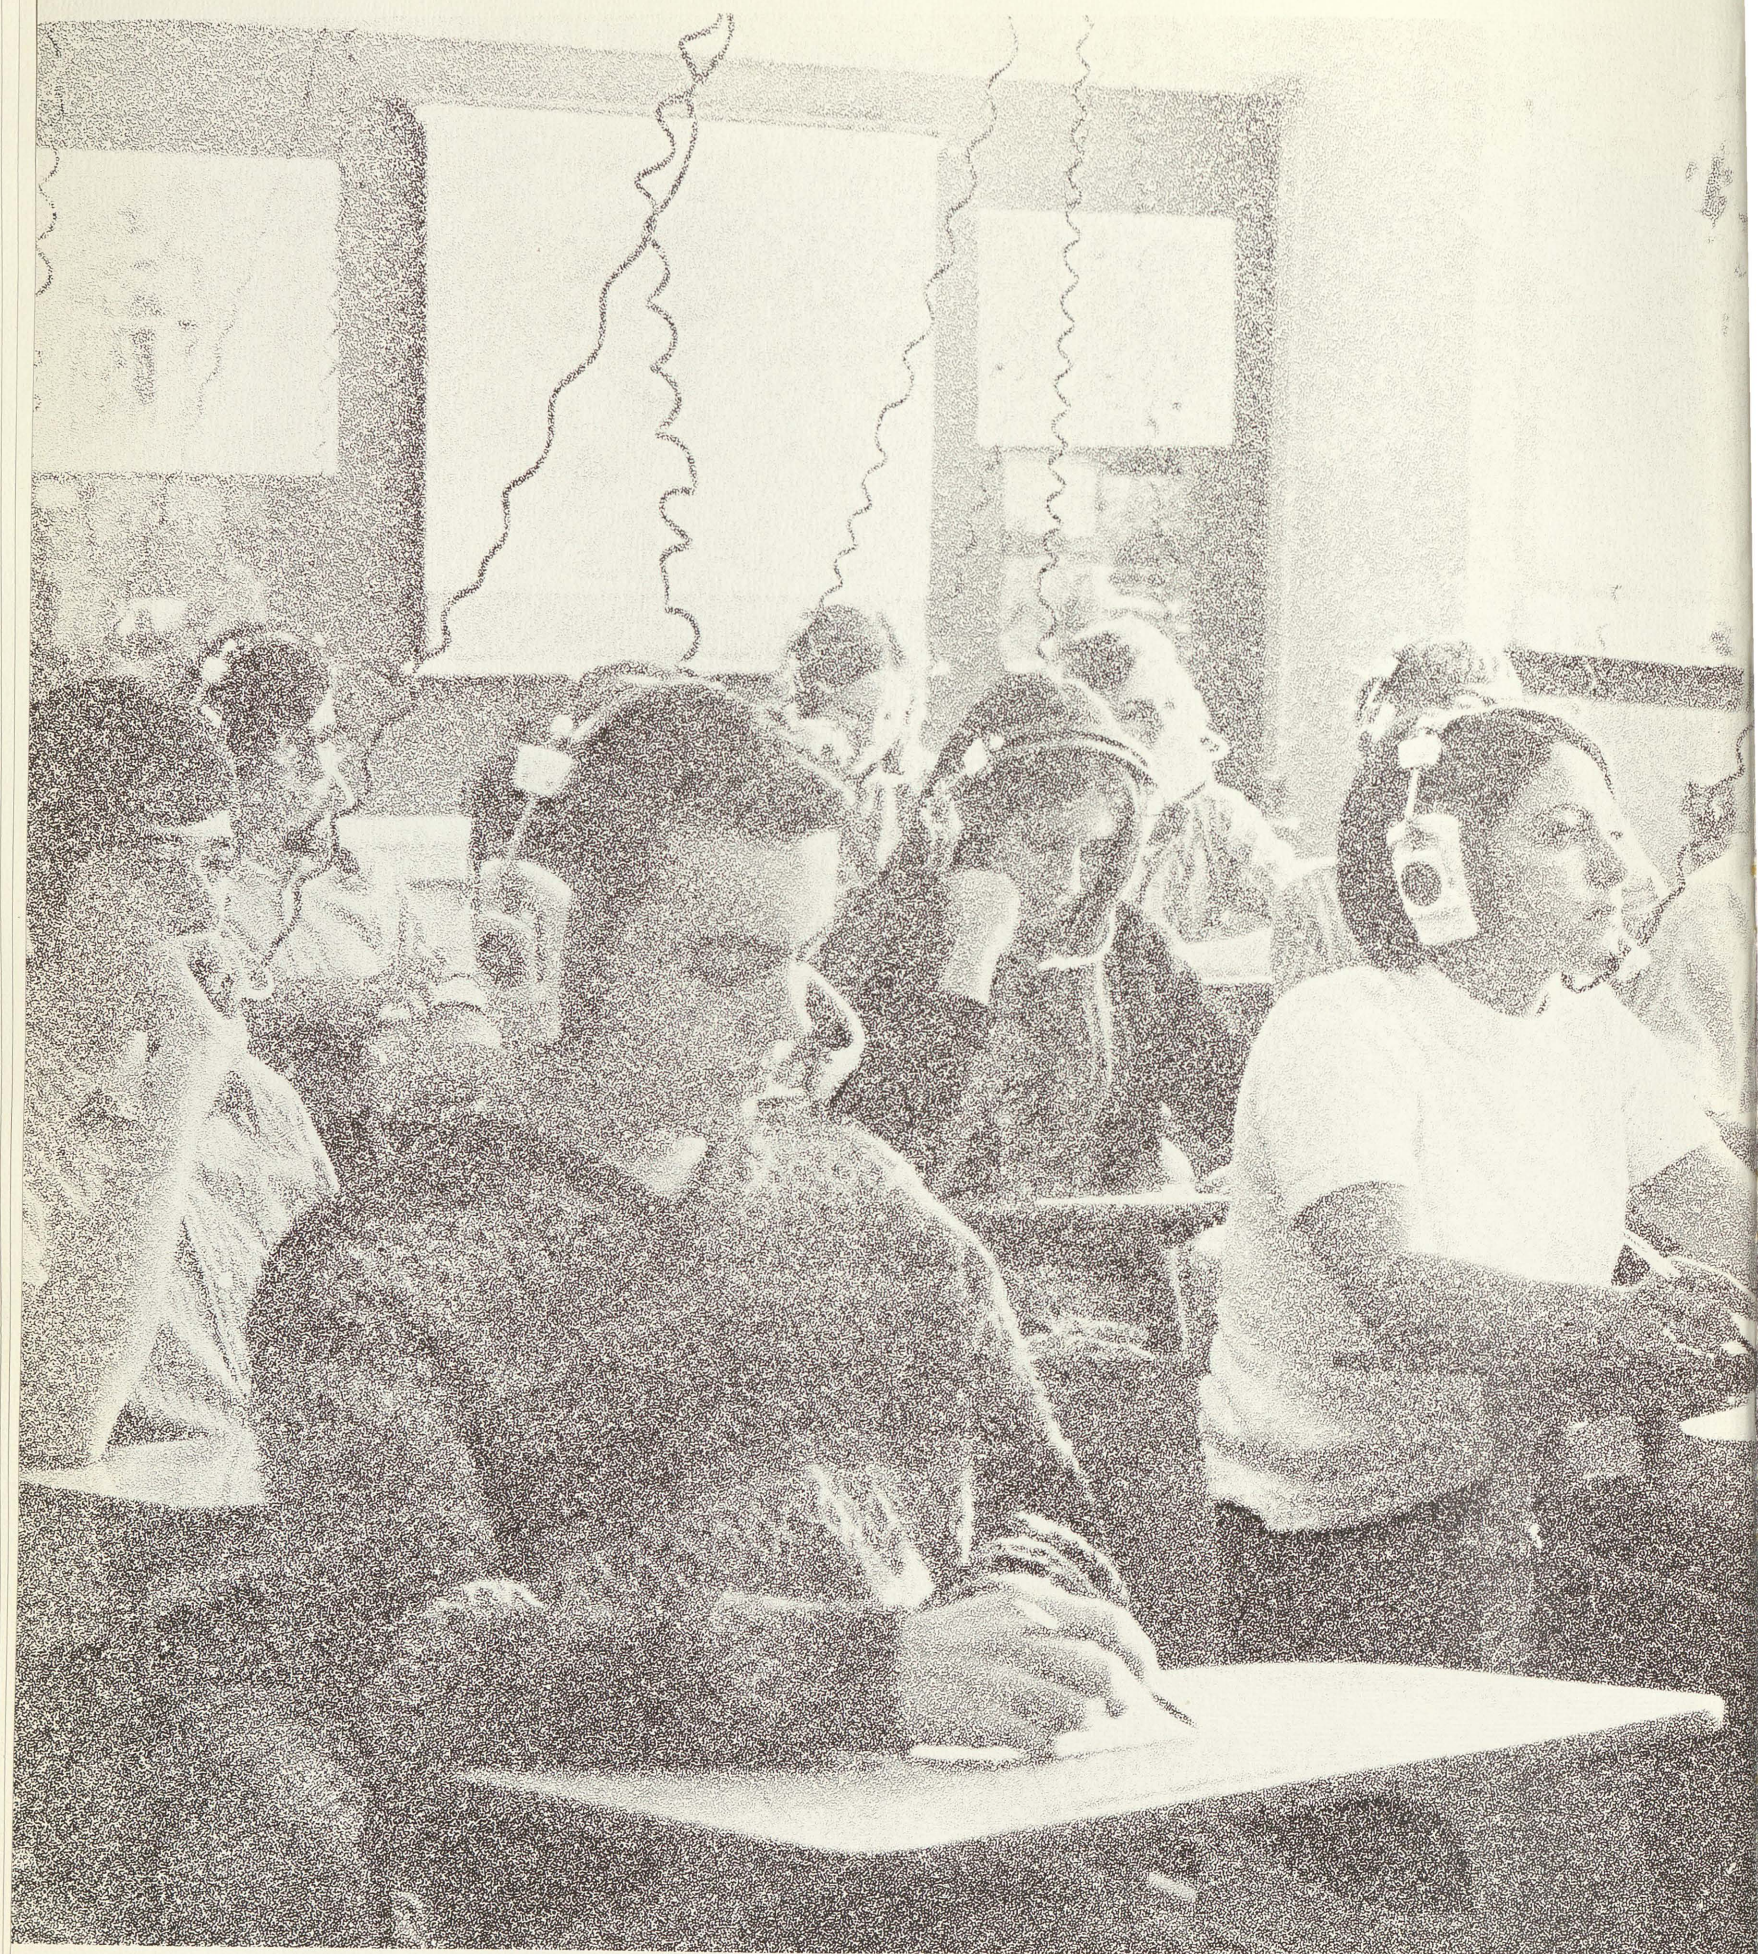

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. The Treanor Chapter, Arthur Hill's division of the society, was established in 1927. To qualify for membership the student must be a junior or senior in the upper third of his class in general scholastic standing. He also must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications work, such as writing, editing, business management or production.

Future Teachers worked as teachers' aides at Arthur Hill and various schools in the Saginaw area. Looking into college requirements and offering a scholarship to a club member were also accomplished.

Speakers highlighted the activities of Arthur Hill's Natural Science and Biology Club. Club adviser, Mr. Frederick Case, presented a program on his walk across the Everglades. Mr. Robert Enszer, Biology teacher, gave a talk on African animals, and Mr. Gary Barker, Biology teacher, presented a program on oceanography. Students organized a field trip to Shiawassee Flats in March.

Awards/ sisters chosen honor alumnae

Vivian and Grace Otto, 1936 and 1939 Arthur Hill graduates, were chosen 1970 Honor Alumnae at the 20th Honor Alumnus Assembly May, 1970. The sisters, missionaries to Rhodesia for 20 years, were chosen "because of their contributions to humanity while serving in Rhodesia." While in Rhodesia for their second term, the sisters became the first ordained women ministers of the Church of Africa and were among the first women Methodist ministers anywhere.

Sally Allen, Carol Beckert and Cheryl Dersch received the three Arthur Hill Scholarships at graduation exercises June, 1970. Competition for the scholarships, which must be used at the University of Michigan, begins in the fall of a student's senior year. The Ippel Cup, given to those who have scholarship and leadership abilities and participate in "recognized school activities," was awarded to Martha Olney.

Outstanding Sophomore awards were given to Gretchen Vanderklipp and Frederick Geuder at the annual Awards Assembly. Both maintained a 4.0 grade average and were chosen by the "Y" Clubs on the basis of leadership, citizenship, scholarship, character and service to the school.

English/ students experience many new classes

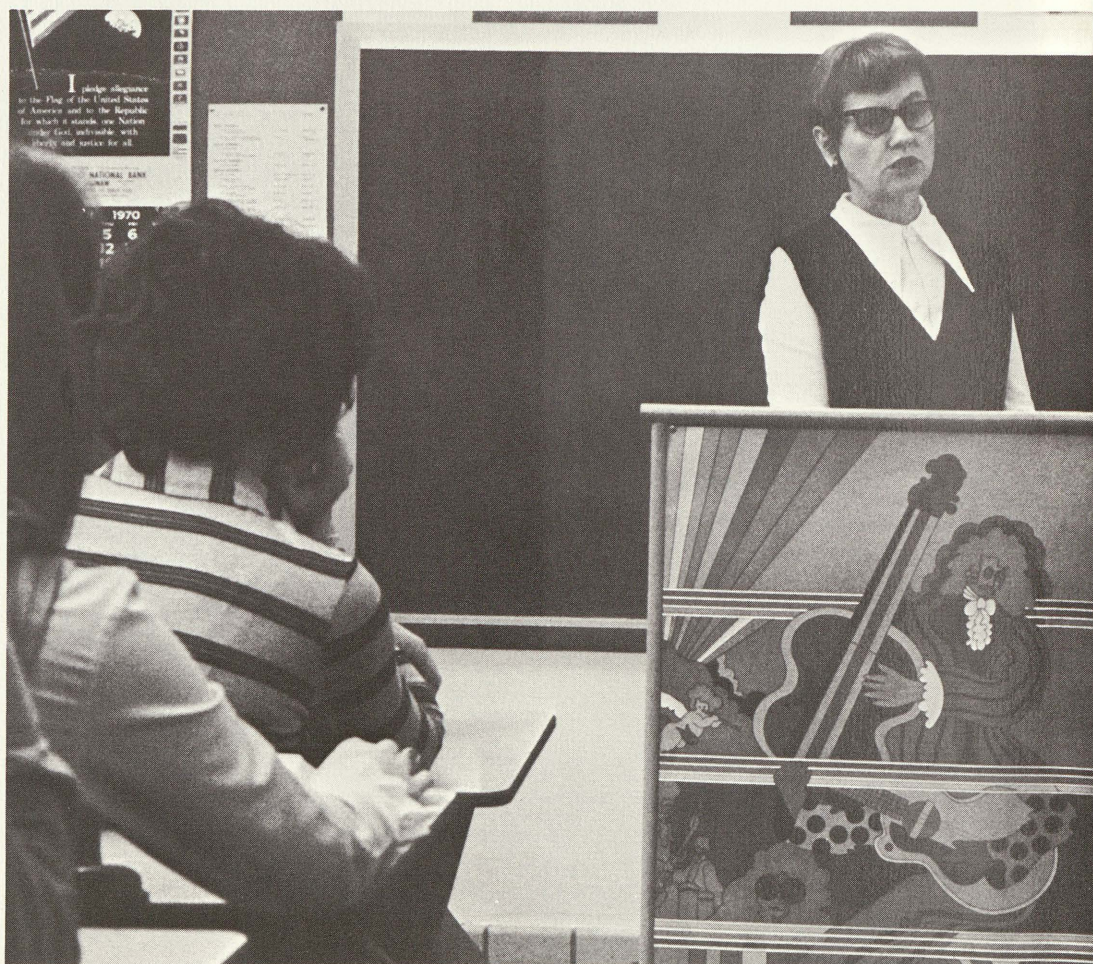

Six new courses were added to the English department curriculum as the result of a student survey taken last year by English teachers. Courses included Creative Writing, Drama, Report Writing, Shakespeare Seminar, Speak Up and Twentieth Century American Literature. The six new courses could be selected by juniors and seniors rather than the traditional basic and academic classes.

Miss Isabel Struthers, English department chairman, said the changes were made "to offer a wide variety of courses designed to meet all levels of achievement and all areas of interest." The classes were added as part of a proposal to revise the English curriculum throughout the Saginaw school system.

More field trips and outside speakers were added this year to supplement instruction. The traditional trip to Stratford, Ontario was taken by 120 students and four teachers who boarded a train in Flint, which took them to the Festival Theatre to see the recreation of William Shakespeare's play, "The Merchant of Venice."

Miss Deford / former extern now instructs Spanish

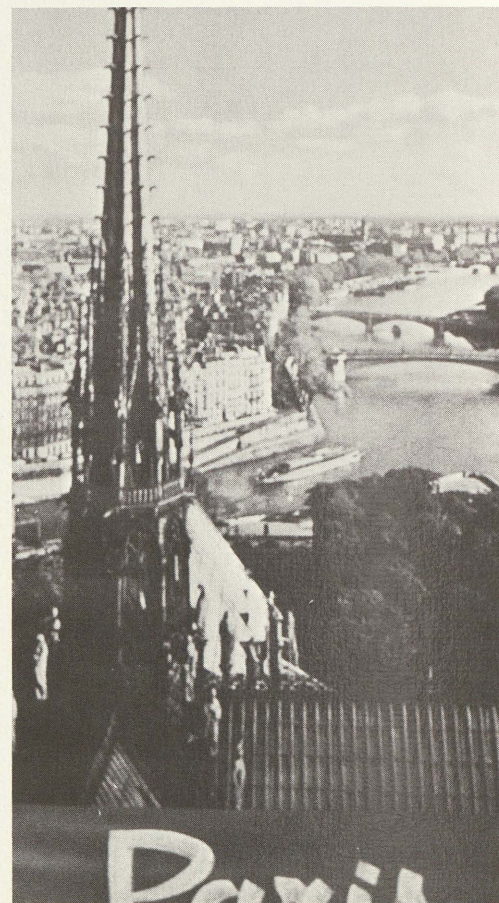

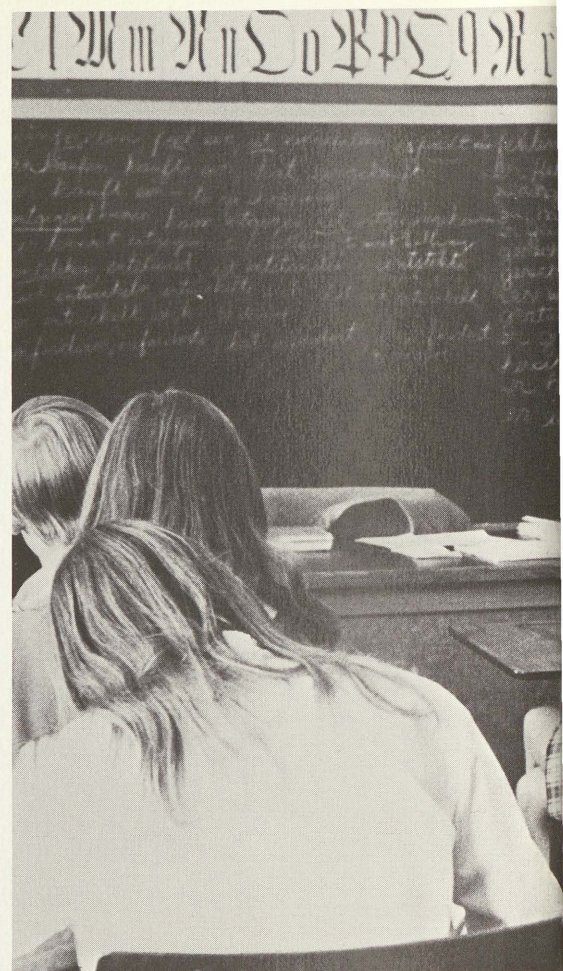

"I really enjoy it here," commented Miss Jo Ann Deford, conversational and second year Spanish teacher. This was Miss Deford's first year of teaching after having externed at Arthur Hill in the spring of 1970 under Central Michigan University's student teaching program. Translating commercials and presenting character sketches were two of the features of her second year classes.

Students in Mr. Harold D. Rowell's fourth year Spanish class experienced individualized teaching. The students prepared lessons of their choice in Spanish and presented them to the class. Oral summaries, new vocabulary words and quizzes were some of the presentations.

Mrs. Margaret Murray's second year French students split into groups and discovered the techniques of teaching themselves. It was left up to the students to decide what they were to learn and how to accomplish learning it.

Geometry/ 'most practical course' Mr. Purdy says

Among math courses at Arthur Hill, Mr. R. George Purdy reported that geometry is "the most practical course offered in school, since everything is measured including time and thoughts." In geometry classes, the accent was on the logical approach in the role of definitions and assumptions. Both plane and basic geometry were offered this year.

General mathematics, for sophomores who wanted a second year of general math; algebra 1 and 3, the study of real numbers and solution of linear and quadratic equations; and trigonometry, the discussion of right triangles and applications, were also offered to math students. This year, everyone in the algebra and geometry classes had up-to-date texts, according to Mr. Rockwell S. Scherzer, department chairman.

Mr. Richard L. Decker taught algebra, geometry and general math. He had been assistant swimming coach for the past two years; but went to the new Eisenhower High in January to become head swimming coach.

Science / new facilities being installed

Construction work costing a quarter of a million dollars began this winter at Arthur Hill. General revision and modernization of all science facilities plus the construction of four additional classrooms above the science wing will be completed by fall. Facilities in the chemistry laboratory, consisting of equipment and fixtures used for chemical analysis, will be replaced with more efficient facilities. New construction will be finished through the sale of bonds and will be the first improvement of its size at Arthur Hill in 15 years.

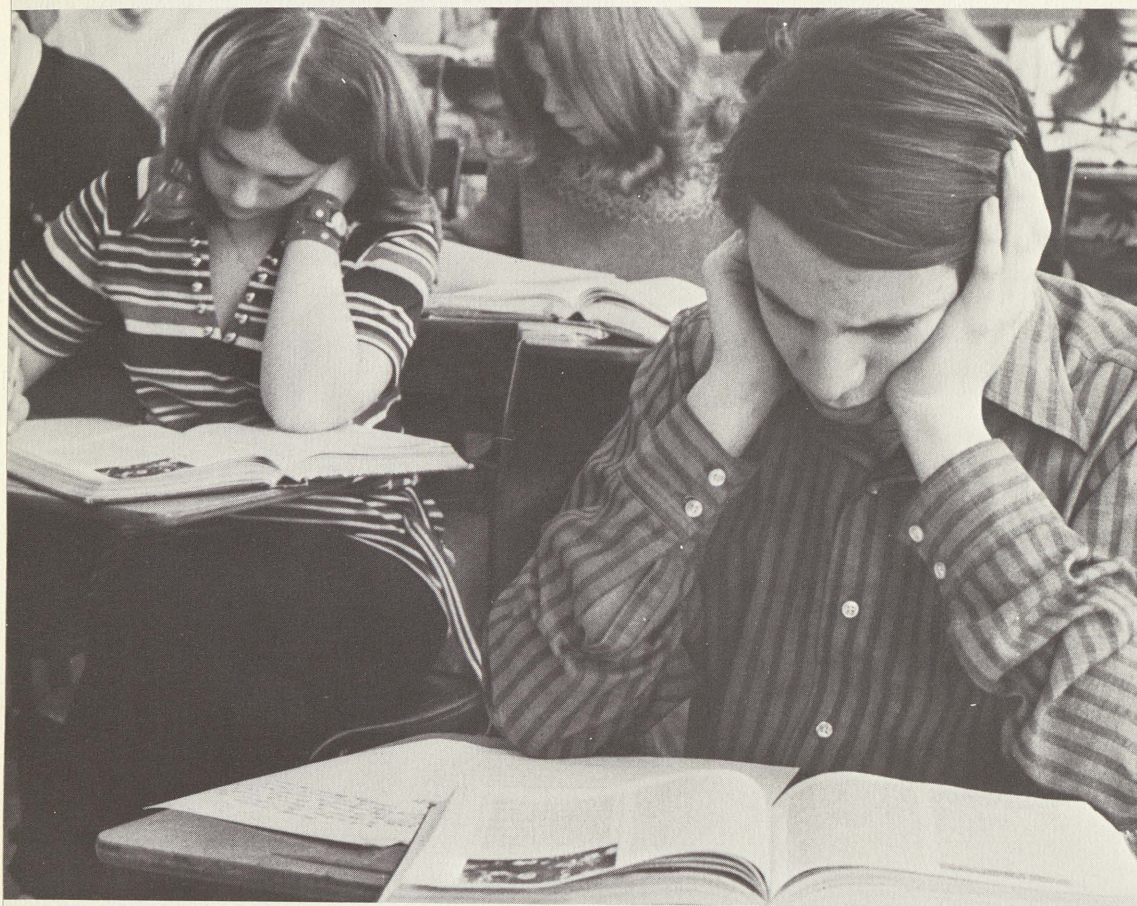

Advanced biology, added to the science department this year, was taught by Mr. Frederick W. Case Jr. During the first four marking periods, students learned basic principles of biology. Directed individual study was employed the last two marking periods, enabling students to pursue a subject of their own choosing. Planning and writing a research theme was a result of individual study.

Psychology/ science of individual behavior

"Psychology, which is represented at Arthur Hill in the form of a basic, beginning course, is the science of individual behavior," says Mr. Robert J. Griffore, a 1969 graduate of Central Michigan University. Mr. Griffore, who taught both psychology and sociology, believes that a student of psychology must have a basic understanding of elementary human anatomy and physiology.

Ancient History was a new one-semester course in sequence with second semester non-Western History. Both were taught by Mr. William E. Durham. Students in Ancient History studied the history of Western civilization from the cave man through the middle ages. In non-Western History students learned how history has caused development of problems in modern country.

Requirements / hillite sophomores learn new skills

All Arthur Hill sophomores are required to take a guidance course. Mr. Vince Combs, Miss Ruth Eckert, Mrs. Merle Leis and Mr. Seymour Murphy helped the students become better orientated with the school and get adjusted to the busy pace of high school life.

Mr. Vince Combs, Mr. Joseph Flynn and Mr. Donald Morey taught boys a varied program of healthful sports activities. Dancing and volleyball were a part of girls' physical education curriculum which was administered this year by Mrs. Margaret Dietrich and Mrs. Nancy Puehl.

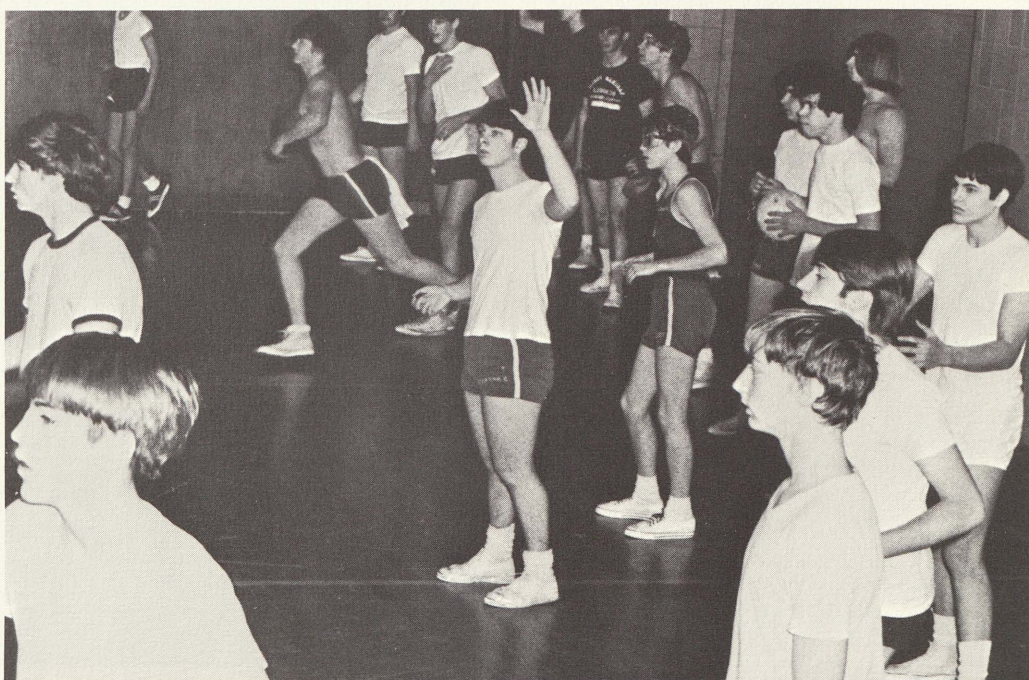

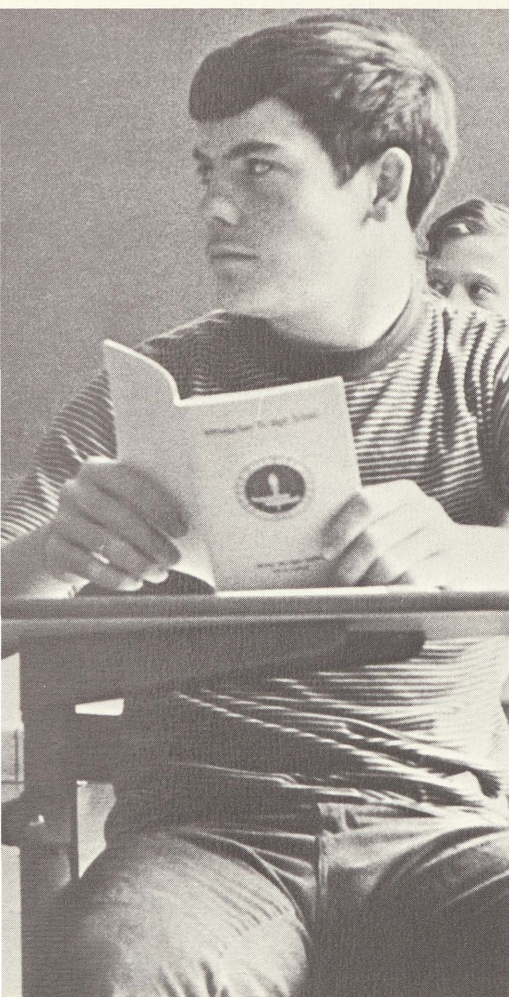

Bookwork and behind the wheel training are the first two steps toward obtaining a drivers license. Mr. Gary Apsey, Mr. Earl Burnett and Mr. Gary Lee assist students in learning to drive correctly and safely.

Family Living/ students learn skills for future

Four new courses added to home economics department were interior decorating and home furnishings, meal management, health and advance clothing. Taught by Mrs. Donna Graebner, Miss Norma Hile and Mrs. Lorna Ziegler, the one semester courses were open to both juniors and seniors.

Toys for the Salvation Army and St. Vincent Home were constructed by students in shop classes. Pins for Blue and Gold Week were made and sold by Mr. Joseph Grundas's woodshop classes. Profits from pin sales were used to purchase new tools. Other industrial arts teachers are Mr. David Blazejewski, Mr. Carl Schmude and Mr. Jack Visuri.

Co-ops / developing the ability to lead in business

Combined Co-op clubs, Distributive Education Club of Arthur Hill (DECAH) and Office Co-op Club of Arthur Hill (OCCA), have a membership of 110. Students take part in a three way training program which includes the clubs, the classwork and the job, according to the clubs coordinators Mr. Ray E. Hartman and Mr. Dwight L. Chisholm.

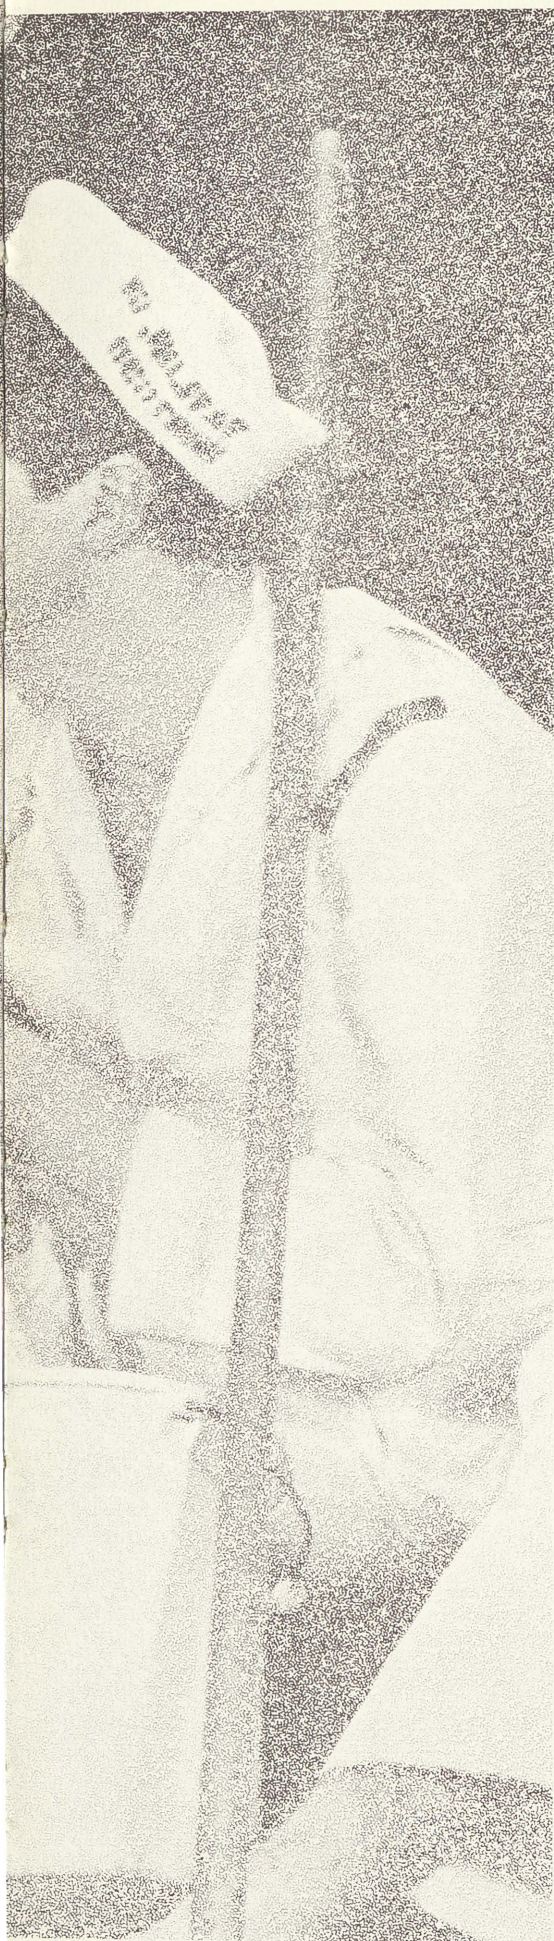

Clubs represent Arthur Hill publicly by working with business and industry, developing cooperative attitude toward employees and fellow workers and encouraging improvement in skills, techniques and attitudes necessary to succeed in business.

Both groups broke records in their annual fund raising Co-op mint sale. DECAH's three top salesmen were Louaine Hirschman, William Lauman and Gary Mushenski. In OCCA, three seniors, Frances Carder, Dawne Devereaux and Linda Muladore, topped the candy sales record. Record breaking totals were 5,419 boxes for DECAH and 3,319 boxes for OCCA.

Dramatics/ play, musical combine talent

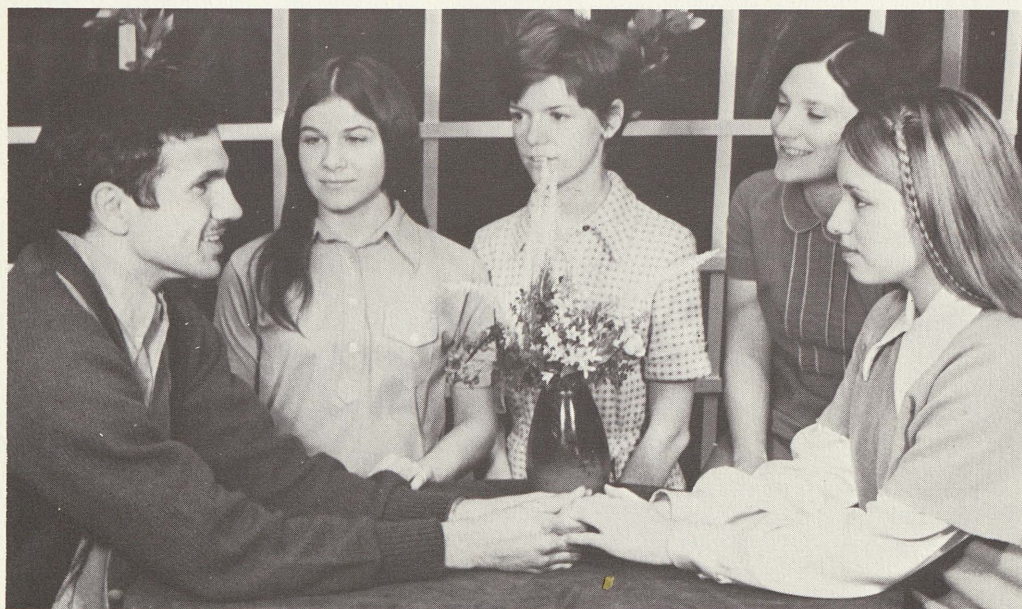

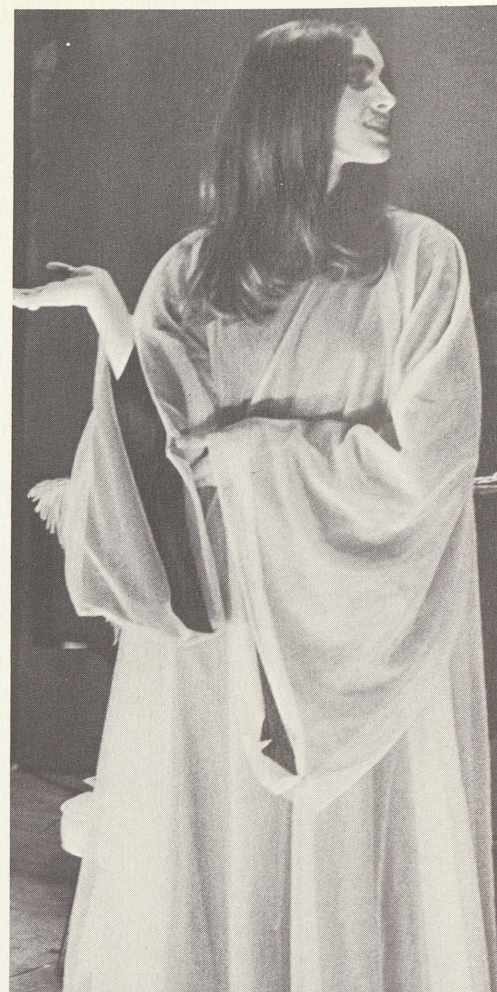

Swaying palm trees, love, sorrow, joy and excitement on a little Pacific island inhabited Arthur Hill's auditorium in last May's musical production "South Pacific." Mr. David Saari directed acting and singing in the musical while Mr. Richard Jensen was director of orchestra and set designer.

Story "South Pacific" opens as Ensign Nellie Forbush (Gloria Ortega), an American nurse, is stationed on a naval base in the South Pacific where she meets Emile de Becque (Robert MacCord), a rich French plantation owner. In time they fall in love, but when Emile tells Nellie that he has two daughters by his former wife, a native woman, she rejects him. Emile then volunteers for a hazardous army mission. When Nellie hears this she realizes how much she loves him and how misunderstanding she has been. Emile returns from his mission and finds Nellie and his two daughters Nagana (Leslie Ross) and Marie (Jill Steiner) waiting for him.

Given Feb. 3, 4 and 6 was "Blithe Spirit," a story about a charming and jealous ghost Elvira (Susan Love), who returns at a seance after being dead seven years to haunt her husband Charles (Arthur Jolin) and his second wife Ruth (Diane Demo).

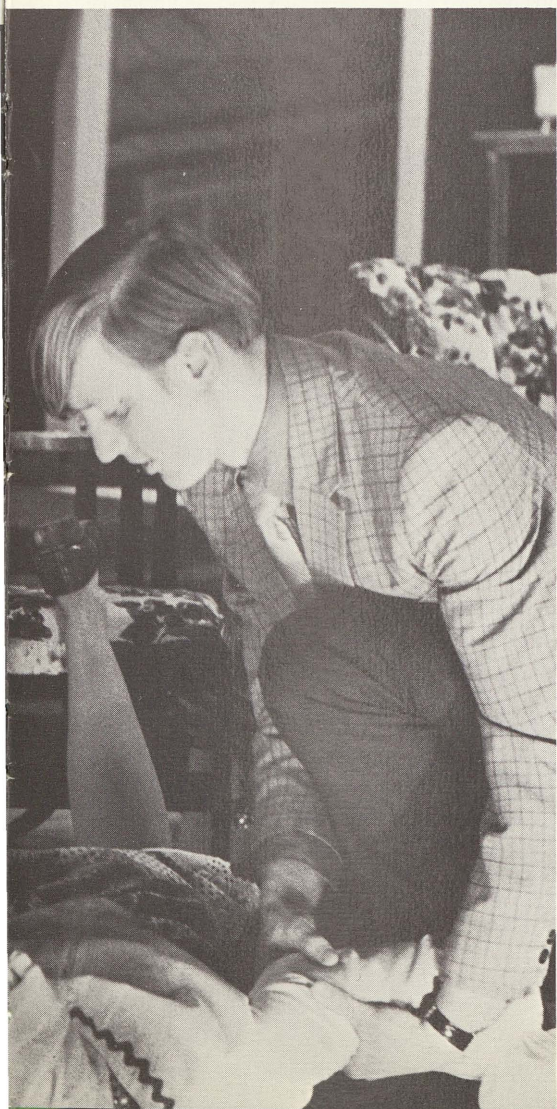

Elvira can only be seen and heard by Charles and thus causes utter confusion for Ruth who believes her husband has gone mad when he tries to carry on a conversation with both wives at once. Elvira tries to kill Charles in hope that he can join her spiritual world, but she accidentally kills Ruth. After Ruth's death another seance is given in which Ruth comes back from the dead. Charles, fed up with women and nagging ghosts, decides to close up his house and leave both wives behind.

Play was directed by Miss Janet Peters, dramatics teacher, and student director John Dixon.

Debate/ promotes logical thinking, critical listening

Debate, taught by Miss Sheila Smith, involved sophomore, junior and senior students. Purpose of debate class is to promote logical thinking and critical listening in students, which enabled them to hold strong arguments of debatable resolutions. During the year, debaters from Arthur Hill met with debate students from other schools in order to let students experience and improve their techniques in debating.

Speak-up, a one semester course added to the English curriculum this year, was taught by Mrs. Judy Wilson. It was open to all junior and senior students who wished to take it. Speak-up allowed students to improve their personalities, self-confidence and good speaking techniques by participating in class discussions and role playing situations.

Drama, also a new one semester course, was taught by Miss Janet Peters. Junior and senior students studied various plays and acted out skits they wrote to present to their class. By performing skits, students were able to develop self-confidence and improve their speaking abilities.

Colors / create movement, expression

Reading colors and experimenting for new and different techniques in water color, acrylics and tri-tec were some of the assignments given this year by Mrs. Carol Wylie, art department chairman. Art students participated in the annual Triple A poster contest, Poppy Poster contest and cover design contest for Saginaw Fair. They also created Christmas sculptures from styrofoam for Red Cross.

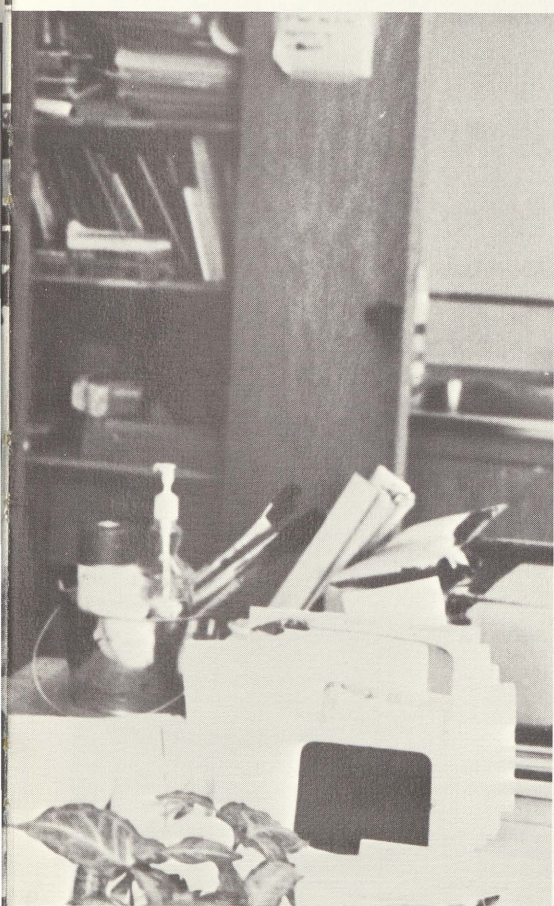

Advanced art students told what Christmas meant to them, expressing it through various paintings and tissue work on brown craft paper.

Mrs. Marianne Vitito and Mr. Earl Mitchell taught crafts class, another section of the art department. Some crafts students experimented in copper tooling, stencil printing, sandcore sculpturing and tooth-pick assemblage while others made leather belts, vests and watch bands.

News/ best student produced offset newspaper

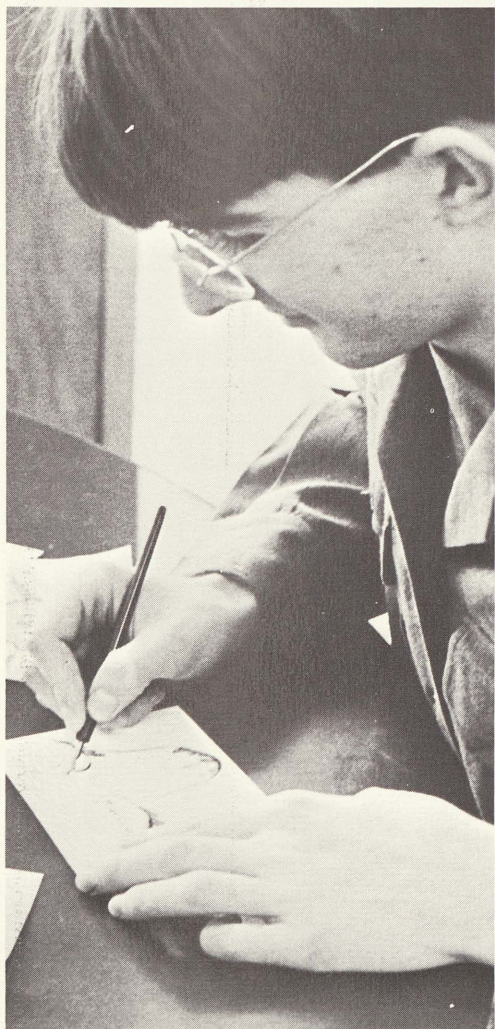

Dedication of a small group of students earned for Arthur Hill the distinction of having the nation's Best Student Produced Offset Newspaper. Recognition was given The Arthur Hill News, produced entirely by students except the actual press run, by three national scholastic press associations. Columbia Scholastic Press Association (CSPA), Quill and Scroll and National Scholastic Press Association (NSPA) praised the newspaper staff at a recognition dinner sponsored by The Saginaw News.

Judging for the award was based on newspapers from the 1969-70 school year. Diane Galbraith and Hugh Miller edited the publication.

President Richard M. Nixon sent a floral arrangement to the school with the message "It is indeed refreshing to see a group of young Americans achieve such distinction." Governor William G. Milliken proclaimed Nov. 11 as Scholastic Press Day in Michigan "in recognition of the outstanding job the journalism students at Arthur Hill are doing."

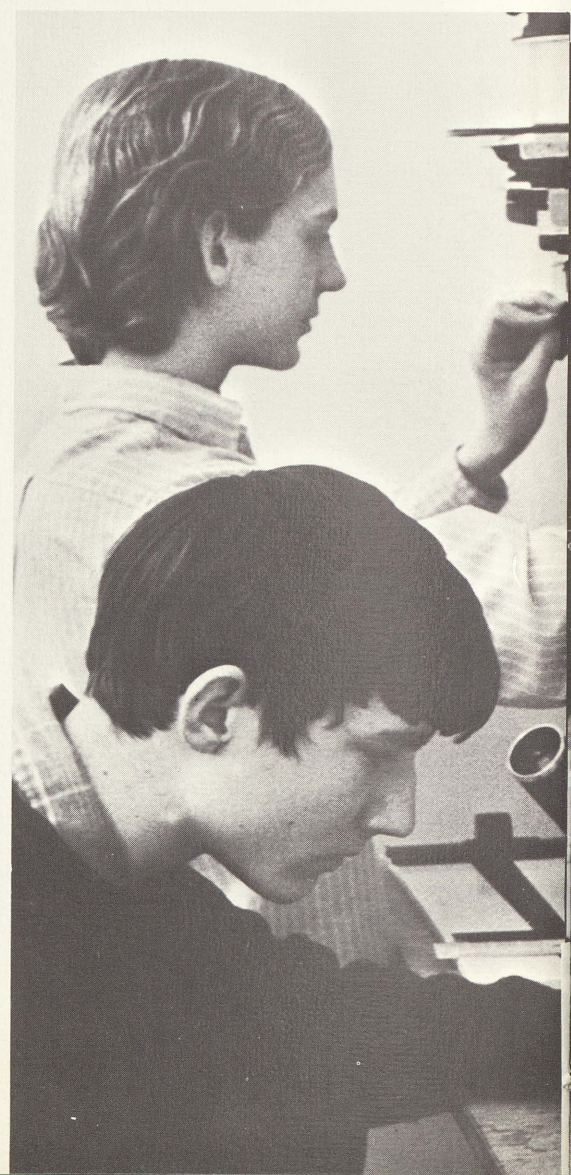

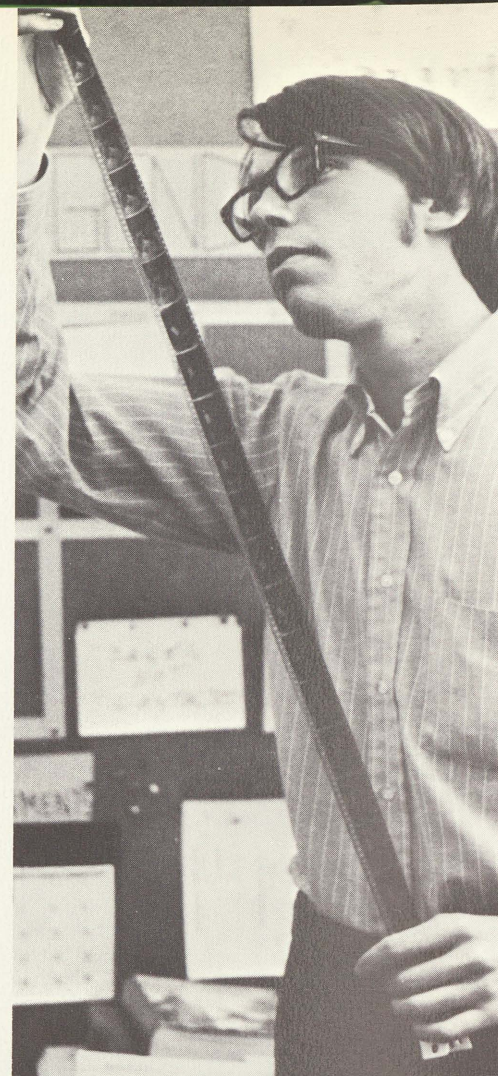

"Headliner March," composed and directed by Mr. Richard E. Jensen, music department chairman, was performed by selected Arthur Hill band members at the dinner Nov. 10.

Football/ Merry, Oeming make All-Western Valley team

This season was a very frustrating one for third year Coach Richard E. Syring. The team was led by All-Western Valley fullback Thomas Merry and guard Jeffrey Oeming, both of whom were linebackers on defense. Team finally put it all together Oct. 24 to whip Flint Northwestern 26-6 for the only win in the last three years.

Strong first halves were a characteristic of the team, but unfortunately, so were weak second halves. Lumberjacks went into the locker room at half time tied with Flint Northern, Bay City Handy and Midland, all among the top teams in the state, only to have everything fall apart in the second half. Coach Syring announced earlier in the year that he would not be returning to Arthur Hill as head football coach for next season.

J V Football/ victory over Pontiac Central season's high point

With the elimination of the sophomore team, junior varsity football was the only opportunity for boys who had never played at Arthur Hill to compete on a school team. The coaching staff, made up of Mr. Gary R. Apsey, Mr. Vince L. Combs and Head Coach James R. Wilhite, was given the job of molding the players into a smooth-working football machine. The 31-man squad finished the season with a disappointing 1-8 record. In the season's final game, the junior varsity Lumberjacks lost the Little Brown Jug to Saginaw High in a close contest, 7-0. According to coach Wilhite, his most consistent players were halfback Richard Jarabek, quarterback Tim Reis, and tackles Michael Hare and Randal Schibelhut.

Cross Country/ lack of strength leads to poor Valley finish

"Everything just caved in when we reached the Valley," according to 14 year coach Edward F. Petzko. The Hillites, heavily favored to place high in the Valley meet, finished fourth with a poor showing. This year's team was made up of three returning lettermen, John Rolf, Martin Zucker and David Waddell. Coach Petzko said the primary reason for the team's loss was their lack of depth and strength.

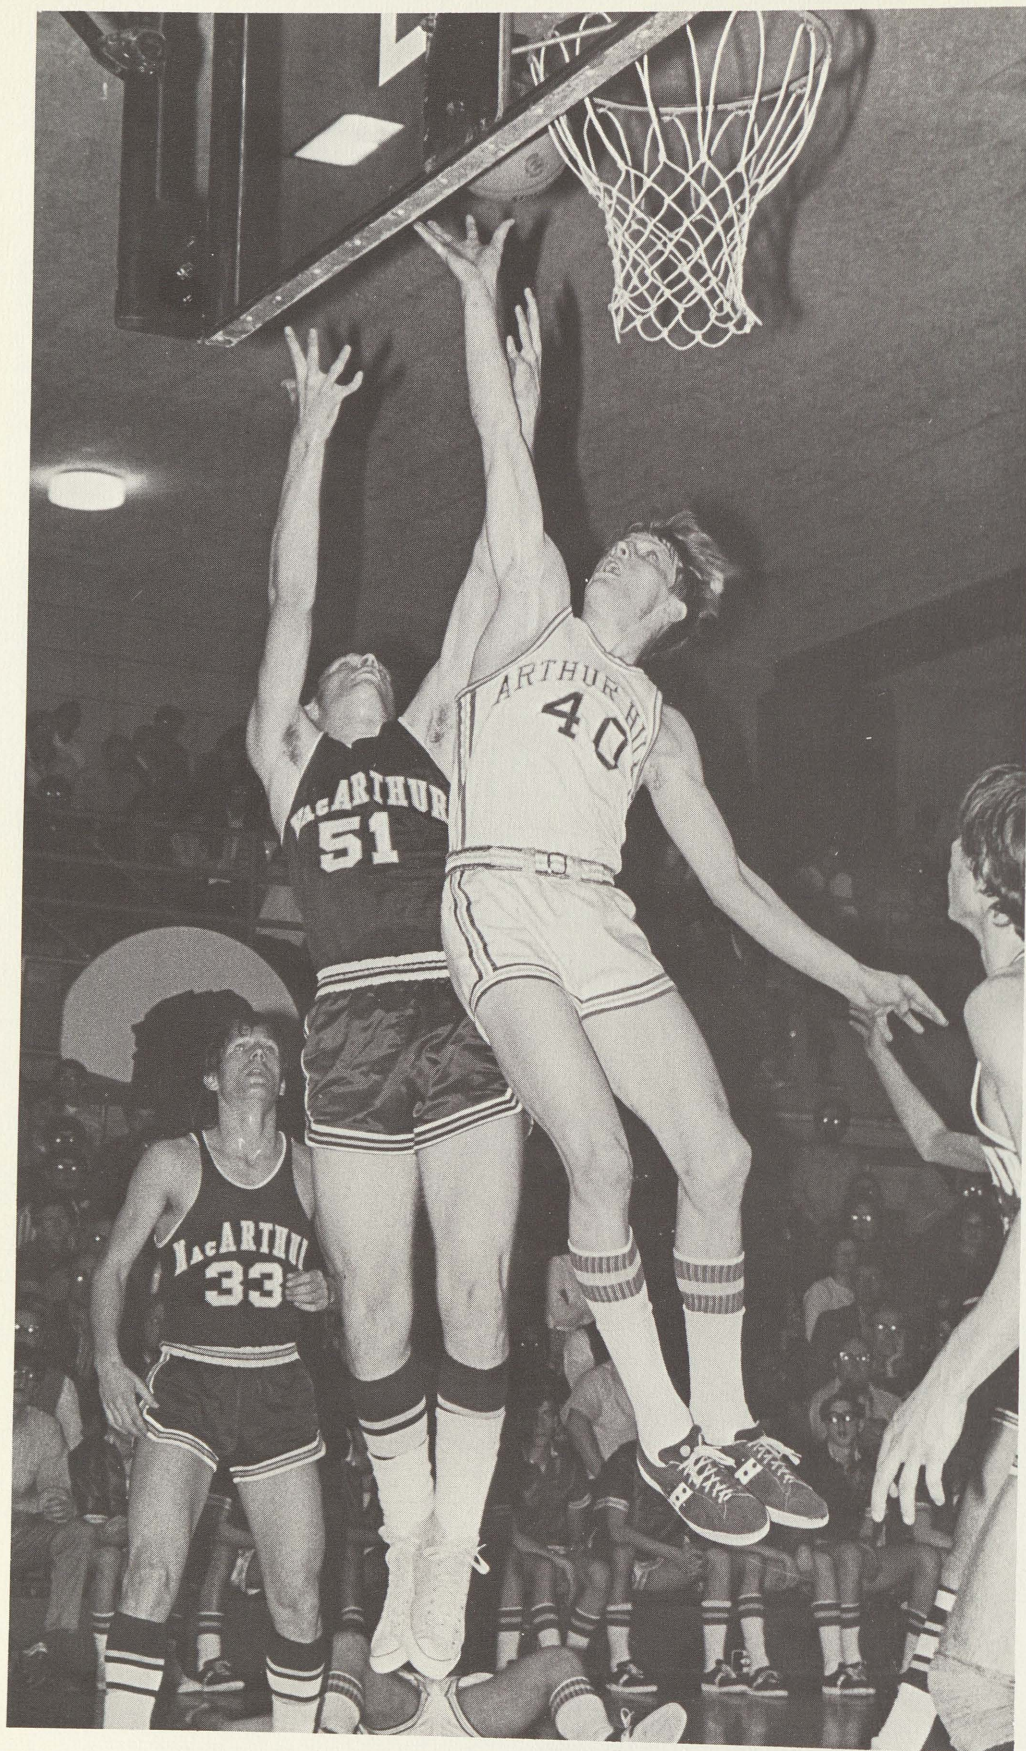

Coach Petzko plans to emphasize distance running for next season. He said he is "eagerly anticipating" next season because of the fine group of sophomores moving up from the junior varsity team.

Varsity Basketball/ cagers register two wins over MacArthur

With eight returning lettermen, Coach Gary Lee's cagers compiled a 7-9 record for the 1970-71 season. Senior guards Martin Zucker, who missed the first four games with a sprained ankle, and Richard Slade formed a quick, harrassing backcourt defense. Top shooters were senior center Robert Becker and senior forward Michael Suhr while the rebounding chores were handled by juniors Douglas Jahn and James Jones.

Lumberjacks sported a tight zone defense and occasionally a pressuring man to man that caused numerous turnovers. "I believe we had a successful season considering we play in the toughest league in the state," Coach Lee notes. "I also expect four or five boys to paly college basketball next year."

Highlights of the season were the Lumberjacks two wins over the Generals of Douglas MacArthur and the 57-56 upset victory over Saginaw High's Trojans. Other teams in the Saginaw Valley League to fall to the Lumberjacks were Midland, Bay City Central and Bay City Handy.

Wrestling/ grapplers improve while winning three meets

"We have improved 100 percent," comments head wrestling coach Richard H. Bistline. Hillite grapplers, headed by seniors James Ducharme, James LaFleur and junior Richard Suitor, made vast improvement over last season while winning three meets. Coach Bistline feels that the team will be ready to be a "big winner" after the experience gained this season. "The team has built up more spirit, increased desire to win, coaching methods improved and the boys have practices three times as much," Coach Bistline explains.

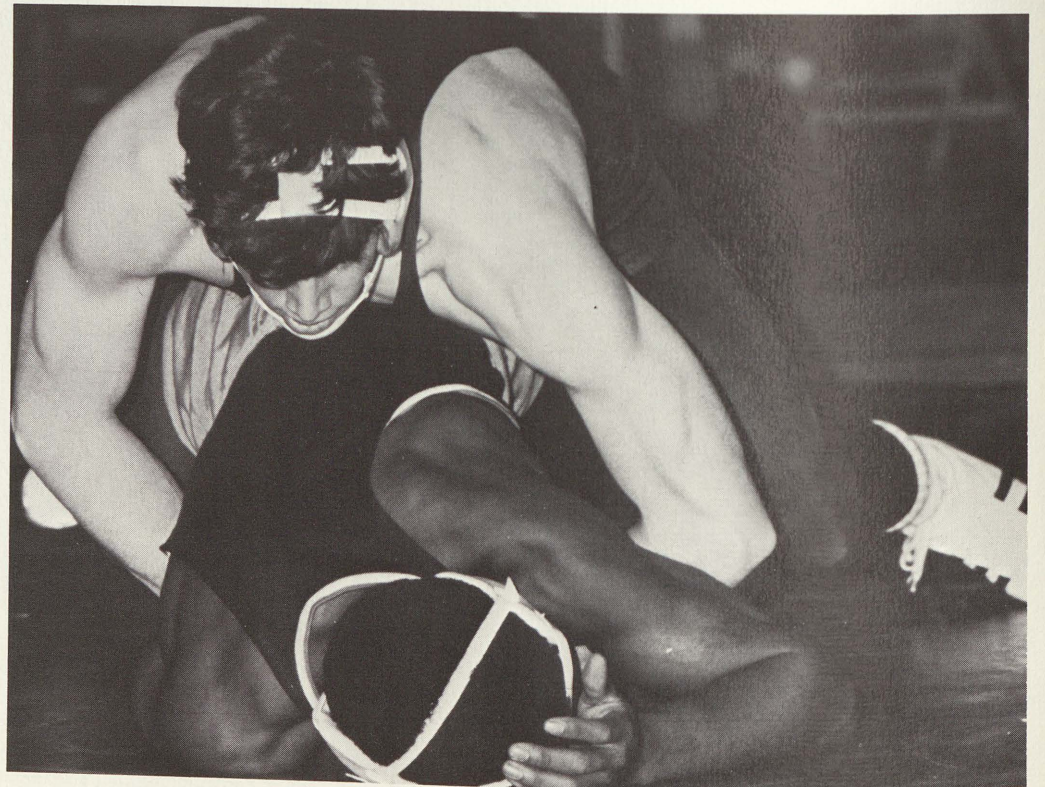

Standout James LaFleur had success in the Delta Invitational Tournaments while capturing the 145 pound championship by defeating Bay City Handy's Ray Snyder in the final match.

JV Basketball/ Deering, Hubbard lead little Lumberjacks

“A little better record.” That was Coach Apsey’s comment on the little Lumberjacks 6-10 record. John Deering, the team’s top shooter, and David Hubbard, top rebounder, helped the team to victories over Bay City Handy, Bay City Central, Flint Northwestern, and Midland. The prospects for the future are bright because there are “good ball handlers coming up from North and South,” according to Coach Apsey.

Hillite swimmers remained the top team in Valley competition and one of the outstanding high school swim teams in Michigan. Sporting an overall record of 12-1, Coach Donald E. Morey's team registered their 14th victory in the 15th annual Arthur Hill Invitational Swimming Relays.

Outstanding performances were turned in by seniors Dean Baumann, Robert Bouchey, Michael Dengler, Steven Dengler, Jerome Fribley, David Holnagel, Greg Hood, Steve Lamb, Mark Lawrence and Terry Schroeder.

Eleven returning lettermen aided the team which lost only four seniors from last year. Senior Jerome Fribley was team captain.

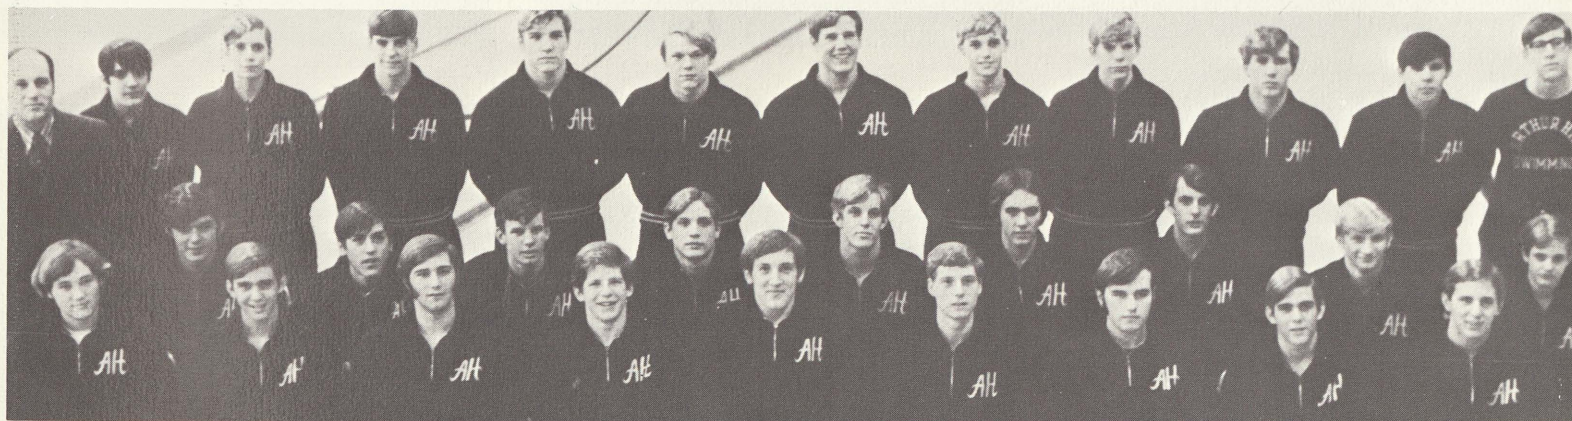

Swimmers defeated rival Douglas MacArthur twice during the season with scores of 61-40 and 60-45. Coach Morey termed the season "another successful one."

Golf/ statistics show Spiekerman's career average third on all-time list

Seniors Wayne Herzog and Mark Spiekerman, the only two returning lettermen on the squad, led the Arthur Hill golfers to a 4-8 season. The team finished fourth in the Western Division of the Saginaw Valley League. Flint Northern won the championship.

Veteran Coach Seymour L. Murphy, who this year completed his 12th season as golf coach, says that the team will surely miss Mark Spiekerman's fine average standings with a 775/9 average in his senior year. He capped off his season with an outstanding showing in the Junior League Arnold Palmer exhibition tournament at the Saginaw Country Club.

Track/ McDonald travels to State Meet to compete in quarter mile

"The team was made up of five individual stars but lacked the depth which is needed to win in Valley competition," according to 12 year Coach John W. McCargar. James Jones, James McDonald, John Mertz, John Rolf and Martin Zucker were all standouts in their respective fields. Jim McDonald achieved great success as he qualified for the state meet. Coach McCargar considered last season an improvement although the team finished last in a six-team division. He said the poor track teams in the past two years was the direct result of lack of experience and the absence of the sport during the spring of 1967.

Varsity track team members are (FRONT ROW, L TO R) J. Rolf, M. Zucker, C. Gasparovic, J. Emery, J. Kurecka, G. Temple, J. Jones. SECOND ROW: N. Moore, S. Kettner, R. Slade, J. McDonald, D. Emeott, M. Tennis/ Hillite netters finish second in Valley League standings with 8-2 mark

Made up of five returning lettermen and recruits, the tennis team finished second in the Western Division of the Saginaw Valley Tennis League. The team was defeated but twice, both times by Flint Northwestern, the Valley champs. Coach R. George Purdy attributed the second-place finish to the lack of experience and the loss of tennis ace Mike Anderson. In compiling their 8-2 won-lost record, they twice shutout the Pontiac Central team. The team was very enthusiastic and made up of very high caliber boys, according to Coach Purdy.

Baseball/automatic pitching machine assists at Lumberjack batting practices

Varsity baseball team, sporting a 14-12 record, had one of its finest seasons. Dave Nehmer, the team's leading hitter, helped the Hillites to a third-place finish behind Bay City Handy, the Valley champs. During the season, Arthur Hill lost two double-headers to Handy in close scoring games.

This marked the tenth year for Coach Jack M. Visuri, his second as varsity coach. He said he is anticipating next season because of the addition of a pitching machine and 10 returning lettermen.

Colors / create movement, expression

Reading colors and experimenting for new and different techniques in water color, acrylics and tri-tec were some of the assignments given this year by Mrs. Carol Wylie, art department chairman. Art students participated in the annual Triple A poster contest, Poppy Poster contest and cover design contest for Saginaw Fair. They also created Christmas sculptures from styrofoam for Red Cross.

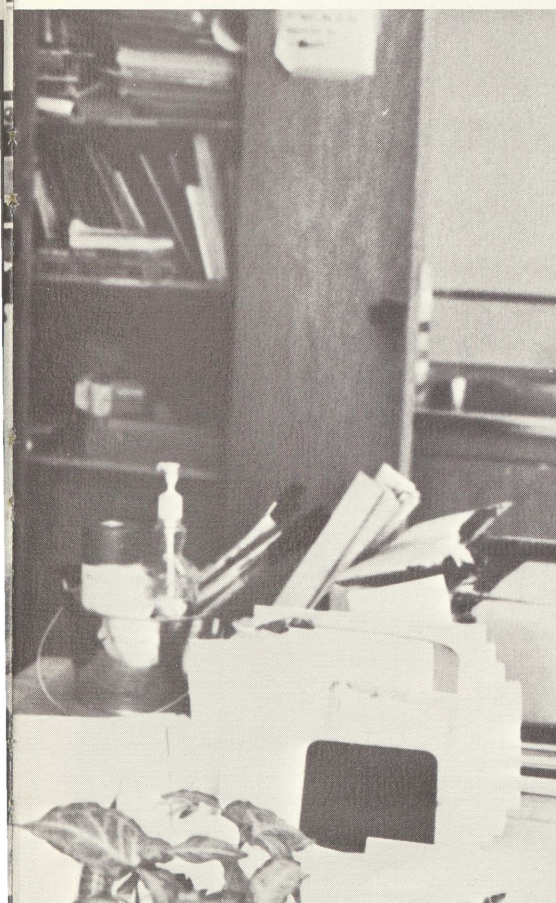

Advanced art students told what Christmas meant to them, expressing it through various paintings and tissue work on brown craft paper.

Mrs. Marianne Vitito and Mr. Earl Mitchell taught crafts class, another section of the art department. Some crafts students experimented in copper tooling, stencil printing, sandcore sculpturing and tooth-pick assemblage while others made leather belts, vests and watch bands.

News/ best student produced offset newspaper

Dedication of a small group of students earned for Arthur Hill the distinction of having the nation's Best Student Produced Offset Newspaper. Recognition was given The Arthur Hill News, produced entirely by students except the actual press run, by three national scholastic press associations. Columbia Scholastic Press Association (CSPA), Quill and Scroll and National Scholastic Press Association (NSPA) praised the newspaper staff at a recognition dinner sponsored by The Saginaw News.

Judging for the award was based on newspapers from the 1969-70 school year. Diane Galbraith and Hugh Miller edited the publication.

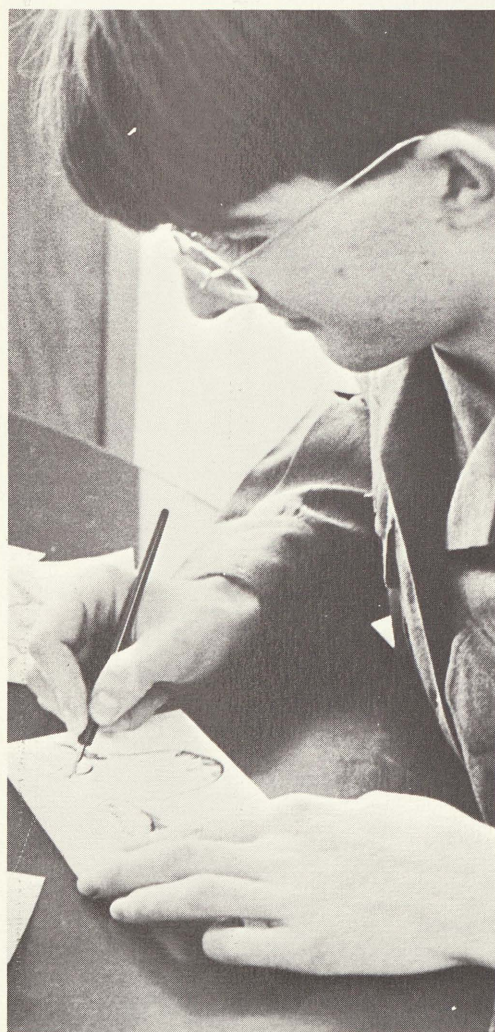

President Richard M. Nixon sent a floral arrangement to the school with the message "It is indeed refreshing to see a group of young Americans achieve such distinction." Governor William G. Milliken proclaimed Nov. 11 as Scholastic Press Day in Michigan "in recognition of the outstanding job the journalism students at Arthur Hill are doing."

"Headliner March," composed and directed by Mr. Richard E. Jensen, music department chairman, was performed by selected Arthur Hill band members at the dinner Nov. 10.

Football/ Merry, Oeming make All-Western Valley team

This season was a very frustrating one for third year Coach Richard E. Syring. The team was led by All-Western Valley fullback Thomas Merry and guard Jeffrey Oeming, both of whom were linebackers on defense. Team finally put it all together Oct. 24 to whip Flint Northwestern 26-6 for the only win in the last three years.

Strong first halves were a characteristic of the team, but unfortunately, so were weak second halves. Lumberjacks went into the locker room at half time tied with Flint Northern, Bay City Handy and Midland, all among the top teams in the state, only to have everything fall apart in the second half. Coach Syring announced earlier in the year that he would not be returning to Arthur Hill as head football coach for next season.

J V Football/ victory over Pontiac Central season's high point

With the elimination of the sophomore team, junior varsity football was the only opportunity for boys who had never played at Arthur Hill to compete on a school team. The coaching staff, made up of Mr. Gary R. Apsey, Mr. Vince L. Combs and Head Coach James R. Wilhite, was given the job of molding the players into a smooth-working football machine. The 31-man squad finished the season with a disappointing 1-8 record. In the season's final game, the junior varsity Lumberjacks lost the Little Brown Jug to Saginaw High in a close contest, 7-0. According to coach Wilhite, his most consistent players were halfback Richard Jarabek, quarterback Tim Reis, and tackles Michael Hare and Randal Schibelhut.

Enter the Young

— a time when each of us is asking questions and making decisions. A time for learning, achieving and participating. Each of us remembers one of these three things from his high school experience. These memories are captured in this, the 1971 Legenda.

Producing a yearbook requires a great deal of work on the part of the staff. Much appreciation is extended to all those who made this book possible.

Changes in this yearbook include larger page size, increased number of pages and the most modern of layout design. For the most part all pictures were taken by student photographers except for individual formal portraits. Special appreciation is extended the photography staff for continued quality work throughout all deadlines.

So closes another year at Arthur Hill. For most it is just a beginning. For all it is a time to Enter the Young.
